

GRADUATE TEACHING ASSISTANT AND BOARDING HOUSE TUTOR

For September 2024 – July 2025

We have an excellent opportunity for a recent graduate who is considering a career in either primary or secondary teaching. It enables the person appointed to gain experience of working in a thriving school.

The position will include many roles; primarily as a member of the boarding team, and during school time there will be many opportunities to assist teaching and contribute to the pastoral life of the school.

The school is able to tailor the GTA role every year according to the interests of the applicant and we are particularly interested to hear from applicants who can contribute to our extra-curricular programme in sports, (particularly football, rugby, cricket, hockey, netball and athletics), music, drama or outdoor education.

Beechwood Park is an independent, co-educational preparatory school for pupils 2 – 13. Boarding is an option which takes place on Monday – Thursday for pupils in Year 5 and above.

The salaried position includes accommodation for a single person throughout the period of employment and utilities are paid for; in addition, all meals during the working week
